

How does Vine Deloria, Jr.'s landmark text speak to the fields of religious studies, Native American studies, theology, and environmental studies in the 21st century?

Thursday & Friday, October 6-7, 2022
Harvard Divinity School (in-person and online)

Thursday, October 6

- 5:00pm The Impact of God is Red on Native American Rights and Native American Religions
Suzan Harjo (Cheyenne & Hodulgee Muscogee), The Morning Star Institute in conversation with Phil Deloria, Harvard University
Convener: Joseph P. Gone (Aaniiih-Gros Ventre), Harvard University
- Panel Discussion:
Robert Warrior (Osage), University of Kansas, Michael McNally, Carleton College, Susan Hill (Mohawk), University of Toronto, and Daniel Wildcat (Yuchi/Muscogee), Haskell Indian Nations University

Friday, October 7

- 8:30am Continental Breakfast
- 9:00-10:30 The Impact of God is Red on Theology
Speaker: Robert Warrior (Osage), University of Kansas
Convener: Ann Braude, Harvard Divinity School
Respondent: Michelle Sanchez, Harvard Divinity School
- 11:00-12:30 The Impact of God is Red on Religious Studies
Speaker: Michael McNally, Carleton College
Convener: Megan Minoka Hill (Oneida Nation WI), Harvard Project on American Indian Economic
Respondents: Anthony Trujillo (Ohkay Owingeh Pueblo), PhD candidate, Harvard University and Anca Wilkening, PhD candidate, Harvard University
- 12:30-1:30 Lunch
- 1:30-3:00 The Impact of God is Red on Studies of Religion, Land and the Environment
Speaker: Susan Hill (Mohawk), University of Toronto
Convener: Kimberley Patton, Harvard University
Respondent: Zoe Todd (Métis/otipemisiw), Carleton University
- 3:30-5:30 The Impact of God is Red in the Future
Speaker: Dan Wildcat, (Yuchi/Muscogee), Haskell Indian Nations University
Convener: Kelli Mosteller (Citizen Potawatomi Nation), Harvard University Native American Program
Respondents: Panel of students and young scholars

Register by Friday, September 30th.

Register for in-person participation here.

For online participation: register for the zoom link here.

Questions? Contact girsymposium22@gmail.com

HARVARD UNIVERSITY
Native American Program

HARVARD DIVINITY SCHOOL

CENTER FOR THE STUDY
OF WORLD RELIGIONS

THE CANADA PROGRAM
Weatherhead Center FOR INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS
HARVARD UNIVERSITY