

Centering the Voices of Indigenous Women

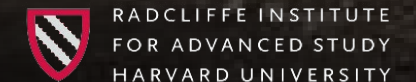

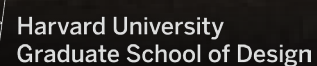

Self-Determination and Decolonization through Literature, Scholarship, and Action

In conversation with Dr. Kim TallBear, Erica Violet Lee, and Emily Riddle
Introduction by Dr. Nick Estes and moderated by Dr. Adrienne Keene

An event organized by the Canada Program at the Weatherhead Center for International Affairs, in collaboration with the Harvard University Native American Program, the Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study, & the Graduate School of Design

March 30, 2018 Piper Auditorium, Gund Hall
48 Quincy Street
4:00 - 6:00pm Reception to Follow

Free and Open to the Public

Artwork: Women In the Walls (Mural, Toronto, Canada) © Chief Lady Bird and Aura

@chiefladybird
@auralast

Centering the Voices of Indigenous Women

Self-Determination and Decolonization through Literature, Scholarship, and Action

In conversation with Dr. Kim TallBear, Erica Violet Lee, and Emily Riddle
Introduction by Dr. Nick Estes and moderated by Dr. Adrienne Keene

March 30, 2018 Piper Auditorium, Gund Hall
48 Quincy Street
4:00 - 6:00pm Reception to Follow

An event organized by the Canada Program at the Weatherhead Center for International Affairs, in collaboration with the Harvard University Native American Program, the Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study, & the Graduate School of Design

Free and Open to the Public

